

Regional Substance Use Disorders Summit
for Higher Education
Sharing Best Practices

The CONNECT Partnership, in collaboration with Bridgewater State University’s Institute for Policy Analysis and Regional Engagement (IPARE), is pleased to host this regional Substance Use Disorders Summit.

Bridgewater State University
Rondileau Campus Center Ballroom
March 27, 2017 10:00AM-3:00PM

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 10:00-10:30 | Registration |
| 10:30-10:45 | Welcoming Remarks , Fred Clark, President, Bridgewater State University |
| 10:45-11:00 | How did we get here? Scott Allen, Chief, East Bridgewater Police Department & Hillary Dubois, Director of Prevention Services, High Point Treatment Center |
| 11:00-11:15 | Regional Data Review , Timothy Cruz, District Attorney, Plymouth County |

- 11:15-12:00 Drug Recognition, Scott Hile, Officer, Bridgewater Police Department
- 12:00-12:45 Lunch & Presentation: Narcan Overview and Overdose Prevention, Dr. Daniel Muse,
Signature Healthcare - Brockton Hospital
- 12:45-1:15 Keynote, Stephen Marciano
- 1:15-1:45 Good Samaritan Law and College Campuses, Amanda Sandoval, Assistant Director of
Prevention Services, High Point Treatment
Center
- 1:45-2:15 Best Practices in Higher Education Panel Discussion: Dr. Kenneth Texeira, Professor of Psychology, Quincy College; Dr. Lisa Battaglino,
Dean of Education and Allied Studies, BSU;
Jack Lally, Brockton City Councilor and BSU student
Moderator: Mary Waldron, Director, IPARE, BSU
- 2:30-3:00 Campus Break-Out Sessions
Facilitated by regional designees

*Narcan Training, for those who have preregistered, will be offered from 3:15PM-4:30PM. The training will be provided by Hillary Dubois, High Point Treatment Center.

Regional Substance Use Disorders Summit
for Higher Education and Community Partners

Bridgewater State University and Bristol Community College Campus
11 Field Road Attleboro, MA 02703
April 24, 2017 10:00AM-3:00PM

To register, please visit <http://conta.cc/2nDb1Lt>